TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

- CAMARINES SUR WATERSPORTS COMPLEX (CWC) – a watersports park designed for wakeboarding, wake skating, and waterskiing. It is located within the Provincial Capitol Complex, Cadlan, Pili, Camarines Sur. The province of Camarines Sur, situated in the southeastern part of Luzon is found in the Philippines, Southeast Asia.

- MALABSAY FALLS – Stunning waterfall is popular for swimming. Located in Mt. Isarog National Park, Brgy. Panicuason, Naga City.

- LAKE BUHI – Lake Buhi is recognized for being the source of the smallest commercially harvested fish in the world, the Sinarapan. A huge portion of the local industry in the province is agricultural and fishing, and although most towns have their own fisheries or plantations, Lake Buhi takes the spotlight in the entire province. If you can't go fishing here, you can always go on a short boat ride and appreciate the fresh air, and the not-so-distant mountain of Iriga.

- PANICUASON HOT SPRING – After a tiring day full of activities, your tired body needs to de-stress and relax. One of the things to do is to take a dip in the hot spring of Panicuason. The hot water is just what your aching muscles need. Located in Zone 5, Brgy. Panicuason, Naga City.

- MT. ISAROG NATIONAL PARK – National Park with the natural volcano.

- DEER FARM – At the foothills of Mount Isarog is a 5-hectare sanctuary of antlers called Ocampo Deer Farm. It is a place where you can hold, feed, and interact up close with hundreds of deers. You can see them prancing, leaping, and running free in the vastness of the place. They are pretty to look at as they wander around the large, open pasture. If you're lucky, they will even pose with you in a picture perfect-photos for everyone to admire.

- PORTA MARIAE – The Porta Mariae is a triumphal arch in Naga City commemorating the tercentenary of the devotion to Our Lady of Peñafrancia. The arch, 18 meters wide, 4 meters deep, and 11 meters high, is surmounted by a 10 feet tall brass image of Our Lady of Peñafrancia and two angels on each side. The main portal's two small gates each accommodate three persons, while the central portal accommodates at least eight persons.

- NAGA METROPOLITAN CATHEDRAL – The Naga Metropolitan Cathedral is a Roman Catholic cathedral in Naga City, Camarines Sur, Philippines. It is the seat of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Caceres. The first church was established after the creation of the Archdiocese as the Diocese of Cáceres in 1595. The present cathedral was built in 1808 and was completed and consecrated in 1843.

- OUR LADY OF PENAFRANCIA SHRINE – Our Lady of Peñafrancia Shrine is a Roman Catholic church in the Philippines, located in Naga City. It is under the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese of Caceres. The church was formerly the home of the image of Our Lady of Peñafrancia before the Peñafrancia Basilica was constructed.

- Minor Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Peñafrancia – is a Roman Catholic minor basilica located on the outskirts of Naga City—also known as the Pilgrim City and Queen City of Bicol. Located in Brgy. Balatas, Naga City.
